About the Arts for Health and Wellbeing Programme

The Arts for Health and Wellbeing Team at Cardiff & Vale Health Charity, recognise the importance of the creative arts within the Health Board. The arts can, and do, have a hugely positive effect, improving the lives and the experiences of patients, service users, carers, visitors and staff, as well as those who work in the arts themselves.

The Impact of Art on Health and Wellbeing George's Story...

George Pope, a patient in the Stroke Recovery Service, has demonstrated the pivotal part that creating art has played in his recovery from a stroke. George has been undertaking rehabilitation to regain movement in his arms and the ability to walk again. During this time, he has used his innate passion for art to create wonderful paintings which exhibited in the Hearth Gallery at University Hospital Llandough. Read the full case study of George's creative journey here
